

Internship Opportunities

Internship Positions

Description:

Since 1923, the Cleveland Council on World Affairs (CCWA) has served as the resource for increasing understanding of international affairs and engaging globally minded citizens in Northeast Ohio.

CCWA inspires engagement in international affairs through a vibrant lecture series, educational outreach to schools and universities, opportunities to engage in citizen diplomacy and forums for public dialogue. CCWA has a long and successful tradition of providing meaningful intern experiences for undergraduate and graduate students. Interns support the different program areas of the Council. Often student interns are able to receive course credit for their CCWA internship.

Location:

Caxton Building, 812 Huron Road East, Cleveland, Ohio 44115. Please note that CCWA's office is located downtown, and interns must absorb the cost of public parking or use of public transit.
